

Volunteer Role Profile

Volunteer Role	Toddler time volunteer
Volunteer Manager	Neighbourhood services volunteer co-ordinator
Where you will be based	Community

Why we want you

Volunteers are essential in helping us provide activities and events over and above our core services.

Whatever your reason for getting involved, you can be confident that you'll enjoy some great benefits. Volunteering with us means you'll learn new skills which is great for your CV. You'll work with experts, make new friends and have a positive impact on the local community. So, if you can spare a little time for a regular slot or just occasional volunteering, we'd love to hear from you.

What you will be doing

- To support the Toddler Time worker at the weekly, under 5s stay and play sessions, you will:
- Support with craft activities, games and toys.
- Storytelling/enjoying books with parents and children.
- Engage with parents about the benefits of early book sharing, rhymes and songs.
- Help Toddler Time worker with setting up and clearing away NB At no point will volunteers be left in sole supervision of children and you will not be asked to accompany children to the toilet or other private spaces.

The skills you need

- Reliable – turning up at agreed times. We know things happen but, if you can't come to an event you have agreed to take part in, please let us know as soon as possible.
- Enthusiastic – about books, reading and stories, and about providing good opportunities for everyone to access these.
- Confident – in talking to children and adults.
- Flexible – willing to carry out a variety of tasks at our events, including setting up and packing away.

What's in it for you

- Knowledge and Expertise – working alongside professional staff will further enhance your knowledge and skills and give you good experience in a public services environment.

- Support – if you have any worries or concerns about any aspect of your volunteer role, there will be someone you can talk to.
- Valuable work experience .
- A reference from us - this is your chance to gain a glowing reference from a respected professional organisation. You'll have to earn it, but you'll have fun doing so and we promise that your effort will not go unrewarded.
- A chance to be part of a team, make new friends, share your skills, learn from others and engage with local communities.
